

Our Company

About Us

Founded in 1995, NetZoom, Inc. (Formerly Altima Technologies, Inc.) is headquartered in the Chicago area. Our revolutionary NetZoom software enables data center professionals around the world to effectively model, monitor, manage, access and control Physical, Virtual and Cloud IT Infrastructure, along with Facility Infrastructure creating the source of truth with an emphasis on capacity analysis and optimizing power, space and cooling to achieve increased server utilization, virtualization and power density and other optimization goals.

NetZoom software implements the latest technology to fulfill current and future requirements of all size Data Centers including Co-lo, Government, Manufacturing, Financial, Medical, Education and other industries.

Our Mission

Our mission is to empower professionals through analytics-driven insight into data center infrastructure to optimize critical resources.

Our Experience

DCIM is our primary business. We have been selling and deploying NetZoom in thousands of data centers for over 30 years.

Our Reach

Our NetZoom product line has a global presence, with products and services offered around the world. Our customers appreciate our excellent entrepreneurial culture and the competitive pricing. The time, money, and effort saved make NetZoom a great return on investment.

Our Partnerships

Our technology partners include Microsoft, Google, ServiceNow, AMI and hundreds of hardware manufacturers.